RE: United States v. Michael Messina, et. al. 22 CR 212 (JGK)
John Campanella Request To Attend Daughter's Birthday event

Your Honor:

I write with the consent of U.S. Pre-Trial Officer Ashley Cosme and the Government.

Mr. Campanella's daughter's fourth birthday is coming up on January 15th. She<sup>1</sup> has been asking to go to a local restaurant with her dad for a meal. The Campanella's were wondering if it was possible for John to attend a luncheon on January 14th for his daughter. The only people in attendance would be those already approved by the Government. The hope was for a luncheon at 1 o'clock in the afternoon. It is requested John be able to leave at 12:30 p.m. and return home by 5:30 p.m. The name and address of the restaurant will be provided to the Government and Pre-Trial Officer Cosme.

I look forward to the direction of the Court.

Most respectfully,

Stacey Richman
